SPOUSAL VISA CHECKLIST

- ☐ Please note that as of February 1st, 2023, the Department of Home Affairs (DHA) requires the South African citizen or permanent resident sponsor to be physically present during the visa application submission.
- ☐ A recent passport-sized photo of both the spouse and applicant is required when submitting the visa/PRP application.
- ☐ Application form fully completed in detail and signed.
- ☐ A valid passport with at least 30 days validity beyond your intended stay in South Africa. A certified copy of the passport's bio page is also required.
- ☐ Submit your application in person at least 60 days before your current visa expires. If your visa is valid for less than 30 days, submit it at least seven working days before expiration.
- ☐ A medical certificate signed by a registered medical practitioner, dated within the past six months.
- ☐ A police clearance certificate issued within the past six months from every country where you have resided for more than 12 months in the past five years.
- ☐ A yellow fever vaccination certificate if you have traveled or plan to travel to or through a yellow fever endemic area. (Direct transit through such an area does not require a certificate.)
- ☐ Marriage certificate (authenticated copy)
- ☐ Affidavit of spousal relationship to a South African citizen or resident, including proof of cohabitation and shared financial responsibilities.
- ☐ Proof of financial support of R8,500 per person per month (or the current amount determined by the Minister).
- ☐ Divorce decree (if applicable)
- ☐ Death certificate of a spouse (if applicable)
- ☐ Legal separation order (if applicable)
